ORAL ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in colluding with the anti-social elements as illegal and arbitrary.

The 4th respondent filed counter affidavit stating that there is no complaint against the petitioners, and therefore, the question of calling them to the police station from their houses, beating them and misbehaving with them does not arise.

In view of the counter allegations, no further orders are necessary in this writ petition and the remedies of the petitioners are otherwise.

Hence, the writ petition is dismissed. However, the remedies of the petitioners as may be available under law are left open. No order as to costs.
